Basic parametric data about RO

The purpose of this section is to provide information across provider segments that provides contextual information beyond the evaluation outputs in Part A and beyond the evaluation panel outputs. This is typically the data that the provider collects as a basis for its assessment in Modules 3 and 4 under section 4.2 of the Methodology. Basic parameters can provide the desired context for the overall performance of the RO. Across segments, it is expected that basic parameters such as sectoral capacity (expressed in financial terms or number of employees), an overview of major international grants (where relevant according to the segment), an overview of activities aimed at transferring research results, information on significant research infrastructure, etc. In view of the different missions of the RO, it is expected that this section will be divided into a basic section (applied to all segments) and an optional section to reflect the different segments.

Part B also includes an evaluation report in accordance with section 4.4 of the Methodology for Research Organisations.
